

Demonstrated Experience

Maquoketa Valley Electric Cooperative (MVEC) has previously deployed a consumer broadband network. MVEC started offering broadband service within the state of Iowa in 2017. Specifically, a FTTH system utilizing GPON architecture. MVEC began providing broadband services in February of 2017 and currently provides internet service to approximately 3,000 members and VoIP services to approximately 200 members.

MVEC has provided electric distribution service to its members for over 82 years.

MVEC has an excellent senior management team, backed by experienced employees, who are competent in telecommunications engineering, operations and marketing. The testimonials provided as part of this application demonstrates MVEC's ability to provide exceptional service to its members.