

Outlined in green is the association owned properties, with the right away access this provides no approval besides the board approval would need to be obtained. All board members are currently aware of this application.