This sub-factor takes into consideration whether Broadband investments in the proposed Geographic Area of Concern will help to facilitate community members engagement in employment, search for employment, and/or develop the requisite skills and knowledge to become employed (e.g., participate in career counseling programs, workforce training programs, as well as gain access to internet websites to search for and apply to jobs).

Work:

Southwest Henry Co is in commuting range for Fairfield, Mount Pleasant, Fort Madison, and Keokuk, for job opportunities. Proximate secondary schools are Central Lee and Mount Pleasant. Southeastern Community College is the closest post-secondary institution. The area's high concentration of underserved locations make it likely that better broadband connections will increase the chances for education, job searches, and skill-building opportunities.

This subfactor takes into consideration whether Broadband investments in the proposed Geographic Area of Concern will help facilitate educational activities. Such education activities may be to acquire knowledge and/or skills, undertaken as part of a person's participation in school, an academic program, extracurricular program, social-emotional development program for students or youths, internship, or professional development program, or in another educational environment.

Education:

Online education opportunities are available for K-12, post secondary, graduate, and skill-building curriculums. Southwest Henry County is missing out on many of these opportunities from their lack of broadband connection. In addition, the regional K-12 virtual school VIBE, located in Burlington, hosts students from Des Moines, Henry, Lee, and Louisa counties. Better broadband connection means more online or non-traditional educational opportunities.

This subfactor takes into consideration whether Broadband investments in the proposed Geographic Area of Concern will help facilitate health monitoring services to monitor an individual's health, including with respect to either physical or behavioral health.

Health Monitoring:

Southwest Henry County is an aging county with a sensible need for remote health monitoring. Greater connectivity will result in additional chances and options for residents to monitor their health, connect to telehealth, and other healthcare options, to increase the county's health factors and outcomes.
