

Grand Mound Cooperative Telephone Association's Fixed Wireless Rural Broadband Expansion Project

Applicant Business Information

Include information about your business structure, history, table of organization.

Grand Mound, which was Established in 1902 as Farmers Mutual Telephone Company and then in 1947 became Grand Mound Cooperative Telephone Association (Grand Mound), has an extensive history of providing excellent customer service. Grand Mound is committed to providing reliable telecommunications services to businesses and residents of Clinton County located in Eastern Iowa. Grand Mutual embodies itself in the best traditions of the Mid-West and being willing to go the extra mile to provide the best service. Grand Mound Cooperative Telephone Association does not have any subsidiaries, affiliates or parent companies.

Grand Mound Cooperative Telephone Association's Organizational Chart

Grand Mound Cooperative's key management personnel offer a vast amount of experience to the proposed Grand Mound Cooperative Telephone Associations Fixed Wireless Rural Broadband Expansion Project. Combined, the team brings over 40 years of telecommunications industry experience to the table. General Manager, Travis Ballou, has 20 years of industry experience himself as well as, Terri Bumann also has over 20 years of experience. The Grand Mound team is prepared to serve the residents of Eastern Iowa with a reliable and desperately needed service.