

Broadband Census Block Designation

Notice of Appeal pursuant to 129 IAC 8.5(1)

Consistent with 129 IAC 20.5(1) and the timeframes set forth therein, this form may be used to appeal OCIO's otherwise final determination of whether a particular census block is a targeted service area. See Iowa Code section 8B.1(12), 8B.10. Please carefully review 129 IAC 20.5(1) prior to submitting this notice of appeal. Failure to comply with the requirements of 129 IAC 20.5(1) may result in dismissal of your appeal. Unless otherwise permitted by rule, please submit this notice of appeal and all corresponding evidence and information in support of your appeal by electronic mail (e-mail) at cio@iowa.gov.

As a government entity, OCIO is subject to the State's public records law found in Iowa Code chapter 22 and implementing administrative rules at Iowa Administrative code 129—chapter 2. In the event you are submitting evidence or information to OCIO in support of your appeal that may contain confidential information, please carefully review 129 IAC 20.5(7) (and the corresponding statutes and rules referenced therein) and complete and submit a Form 22, available here <http://ocio.iowa.gov/Form22>, along with such evidence and information. Failure to do so may result in rejection of your request for confidential treatment.

3. Why are you appealing?

How does OCIO's designation of this census block harm you, specifically? See 129 IAC 20.5(1)(a)(3). If the field below does not provide sufficient space for you to answer thoroughly, please attach additional pages to this form to supplement your response to this question.

We would like the census blocks in column A of attached broadband deployment file to be designated as TSAs so future construction to provide broadband above 25/3Mbps will qualify for property tax exemption.

4. What is the basis for your appeal?

Please state the reason(s) you believe OCIO's determination regarding the specific census block forming the basis of your appeal is incorrect. See 129 IAC 20.5(1)(a)(4). In stating your reasons, please cite to the specific statutes, rules, or other law upon which your appeal is based, and to any evidence or information you have submitted to the OCIO in support of your appeal. Please be as specific as possible. If the field below does not provide sufficient space for you to answer thoroughly, please attach additional pages to this form to supplement your response to this question.
